

BOOK WEEK CELEBRATIONS

The annual Book Week celebration at Gyan Bharati School offered a rich tapestry of literary, musical and cultural experiences for children. With a diverse array of activities spanning storytelling, music appreciation, author spotlights and interactive installations, the literary week provided a platform for fostering a love for reading and learning among students.

The fest kick started with a captivating 'Meet the Author Session' featuring Mrs. Sutapa Basu, an author, educationist and writing coach. Pop-up installations of classic works like "The Magic Faraway Tree" by Enid Blyton and "Little Women" by Louisa May Alcott were displayed, encouraging exploration of timeless literature. Installations honouring renowned cartoonists like R.K Laxman, Mr. Maria Miranda and K. Shankar Pillai showcased the power of visual storytelling, inspiring creativity and appreciation for the art form.

A Story telling session and another workshop on Debating Skills and public speaking abilities was organised in collaboration with Times NIE. A workshop on News Reporting in collaboration with The Hindu was conducted by Mr. Ziya Us Salam, Associate Editor at The Hindu. Assemblies that allowed the children to explore literary genres through theatrical performances were also organised. Through a blend of educational experiences, cultural immersion, and creative expression, students were inspired to embark on a lifelong journey of discovery and learning through the pages of books and the melodies of music.
