

The Magic of Reading: Unlocking New Worlds

‘A book is a gift you can open again and again’ – Garrison Keillor

Gyan Bharati School, Saket observed Book Week from 24th April to 28th April, 2023 to celebrate the joy of reading. The Book Week commenced with the ‘Meet the Author Session’. Ms. Sunita Pant Bansal, the renowned mythologist and storyteller was the Chief Guest on the occasion. During the interactive session with the author, the budding writers got some insights into her books and also received answers for some pertinent questions related to the writer’s block. They got an opportunity to buy her books and have them signed by the author herself. The Book Fair organized by the Scholastic India Ltd allowed students to explore the world of books. Designing book jackets and bookmark making were some of the many activities. Students were delighted to showcase their creative skills during the workshops conducted by Mr. Anis Siddiqui, an illustrious calligrapher and the professional cartoonist Mr. Ajit Narayan. The story telling session by Ms. Akansha Datta, a book blogger and storyteller garnered much appreciation. The Book Week at GBS was indeed one of our many little ways to broaden a child’s world and inculcate the habit of reading.
