

Session on Financial Literacy

On Tuesday, 16th May 2023, Gyan Bharati School organised a special talk on Financial Literacy for the senior secondary students to impart the knowledge about financial management. The Guest Speaker was Mr. Aayush Gupta, the Co-founder of Fampay, a Neo bank exclusively for teenagers. A visionary, an entrepreneur with the recent digitalization of finances, Mr. Gupta at this young age, has endeavoured to empower students in finances.

Although a B. Tech in Production and Industrial Engineering from IIT Roorkee, Mr. Aayush admitted that his interest always lay in business, operations, community building and marketing. The young speaker engaged the audience into an insightful session on his journey as an entrepreneur and all the obstacles he had to overcome in order to build his own company. He enlightened the students with his words of wisdom on financial literacy and different ways through which students can become financially independent at a young age.

Mr. Gupta encouraged the students and everyone present to make themselves literate in finance and take it seriously as it's the need of the hour. During the interactive session, the audience got an opportunity to ask some pertinent questions, to which Mr. Gupta responded with much excitement. The speaker, no doubt, endeared everyone with his simplicity and frankness.

The objective of the workshop was to impart the money management skill among the students. The session proved beneficial for the attendees as they clarified their doubts regarding investments and realised the importance of managing earnings prudently.
