

Gyan Bharati School
Saket, New Delhi

DATE: 22.12.2023

NAME OF THE EVENT: Special Christmas Assembly (Primary Department)

CLASSES: P5

TEACHER INCHARGE: Teachers of P5

On 22nd of December 2023, the festive spirit came alive at Gyan Bharati school ,during the special Christmas assembly, a memorable event orchestrated entirely by the talented children of Grade 5. The assembly featured a delightful blend of traditional carols in both Hindi and English, creating an atmosphere of cheer and happiness that resonated throughout the school.

A major highlight of the assembly was the engaging play titled "The Sole of Christmas", which conveyed a profound message about the true spirit of Christmas. With dedication and enthusiasm, the children brought the characters to life and effectively emphasized the values of goodness and humanity as supreme qualities. The play served as a powerful reminder that the festive season is a time to embody goodwill and kindness throughout the year.

Through their musical talents and captivating play, the young performers created an unforgettable experience that showcased not only their artistic abilities but also the sense of community within the school. The event left a lasting impression on everyone present, reinforcing the festive spirit and the values of Christmas.

