

GRADUATION DAY

“Go confidently in the direction of your dreams. Live the life you have imagined.”

Gyan Bharati School, Saket, celebrated its Graduation Day for the outgoing class of 2023-24 on 18th January 2024, in the school auditorium. The dignitaries included the Hon'ble Chief Guest, Mr. T C A Rangachari, IFS and India's former Ambassador to Algeria, France and Germany, the School Principal, Dr. Mudita Sharma and the Vice- Principal, Mr. Sanjay Bhardwaj.

The programme commenced with the lamp lighting ceremony by the Hon'ble Chief Guest, the Principal and the Vice Principal. It was followed by a soulful rendition of Medha Suktam, a Vedic mantra dedicated to Goddess Medha and a melodious classical instrumental presentation titled “Swaranjali”, a musical ensemble incorporating Raag Bhupali and Tilak Kamod.

Graduating students, Navyasha Chadha and Venneti Bhargav spoke on behalf of the outgoing batch. They shared their fondest memories at school and expressed their heartfelt gratitude towards the school fraternity for shaping them into confident individuals.

In his commencement lecture, Mr. T C Rangachari congratulated the outgoing batch and complimented them on their achievements. The Principal, Dr. Mudita Sharma exhorted the students to be audacious in the pursuit of their dreams and encouraged them to scale new heights of glory. The citation was read out and the graduating students were felicitated with their citations and 'angavastram'.

It was a solemn moment that really added charm to the atmosphere: a moment of palpable excitement, elation and expectation as the remarkable journey that began years ago came full circle.
