

Gyan Bharati School
Saket, New Delhi

DATE: 17.02.24

NAME OF THE EVENT: Annual Day Function (Primary Department)

CLASSES: P1-P5

TEACHER INCHARGE: Teachers of P1 –P5

Gyan Bharati School's primary section basked in the glory of its annual day on the enchanting afternoon of February 17th. The distinguished presence of Pandit Pranshu Chatur Lal elevated the event, with both parents and teachers radiating enthusiasm.

Adhering to the theme "Khel Khel Mein Khushi Khushi Se," the primary school orchestrated a splendid fusion of agility, balance, and coordination, seamlessly interwoven within drills and dance presentations. The ceremonial inauguration unfolded as class 5 children, in a divine spectacle, welcomed spring through the graceful movements of Shantiniketan dance, casting the atmosphere in the serene hues of Basant.

The endearing performers of Class 1 captivated hearts with their rendition of "Shabash 2023," a celebration of India's accomplishments, characterized by nimble movements with Pom Pom in yet another vivacious performance titled "Peppy Munchkins." Class 2 injected Goan vibrancy into the affair with "Maria Pitache" and showcased their prowess with colorful balls in the spirited "Kartabi Ball."

Class 3 enchanted the audience with a magical display of hoopla, seamlessly entwining tango movements with hoopla artistry. The ground metamorphosed into a canvas of ever-changing colors, reaching its zenith with the awe-inspiring "Dancing Aviators." The parachute formations, evolving from a tent to a balloon, left spectators breathless in wonder.

Class 4, in a poignant dance presentation titled "Mobile or Immobile," imparted a powerful message on responsible technology use, evoking heartfelt emotions. Class 4's Alison showcased exceptional body percussion skills in an enthralling performance titled "Stomping Musicians," where young talents synchronized their movements with the beats of songs, creating a visual symphony.

A special moment was reserved for students with perfect attendance, receiving due acknowledgment, underscoring the importance of unwavering commitment. Awards were bestowed upon those achieving excellence in track and field events and intersection sports matches.

Pandit Pranshu Chatur Lal, the chief guest, not only lauded the students' efforts but also enraptured the audience with a captivating tabla presentation. Mrs. Lata Vaidyanathan, the school director, and Dr. Mrs. Mudita Sharma, the principal, showered commendations on all presentations, praising the indomitable spirit of the children. Parents, joining the celebration in large numbers, bestowed blessings and expressions of appreciation. Gyan Bharati School's annual day emerged as a triumph, showcasing a seamless fusion of talent, creativity, and a strong sense of community spirit.

