

GBS @ SRMUN'23

Through the paths of dissent and diplomacy

A team of students from Gyan Bharati School took on themselves to represent the school at SRMUN'23 hosted by Sri Ram College of Commerce, Delhi University from 15th-17th April 2023.

The delegates were assigned different committees ranging from the United Nations General Assembly to the International Press Corporation.

The agenda in different committees greatly varied, ranging from the current affairs including that of the Russia-Ukraine War to taking a walk down memory lane with the Indian War Cabinet discussing the Indo-Pak War (1971) as well as The League Of Nations.

The delegates bagged the following awards:

Sarthak Upmanyu- Verbal Mention (Delegate of Venezuela, UNGA {Legal})

Saarth Mamtani- Special Mention (Delegate of Belarus, UNGA {Legal})

Kashish Bahl- High Commendation (Journalist, International Press Corps)

Adya Mayer- High Commendation (Journalist, International Press Corps)

Tushara Lakshmi Kammili- Outstanding Journalist (Journalist, International Press Corps)

The conference served as a great learning experience as well as a place to connect with a variety of people.

Heartfelt Gratitude is extended towards School Director, Mrs Lata Vaidyanathan; Principal, Mrs Mudita Sharma as well as Teachers In-Charge (GBS MUN Society) Ms Barnali Paul and Ms Archana Shukla.
